

Copyrights

Copyrights covering the use of time series data, resource data, wind farm data or any other results extracted from WindData.Com:

All data and associated supporting software, stored on WindData.com, are free of use for registered users. However, any application of results and/or data, originating from this server, should always include reference to: "Database of Wind Characteristics " together with an appropriate site reference. Furthermore, references of work, based on results from this database, should be forwarded to:

*Department of Mechanical Engineering
Technical University of Denmark
Nils Koppels Allé, DTU, Building 403
DK-2800 Lyngby
att. Kurt S. Hansen*

*fax. +45 4593 0663
tel. +45 4525 4318
E-mail: ksh_at_mek.dtu.dk*

Please note: Also work based in part on measurements and results from WindData.com has to be acknowledged as described above.

Example of a recommended acknowledgement (prepared for coping):

Acknowledgement

This analysis/project has benefited from measurements downloaded from the internet database: "Database of Wind Characteristics" located at DTU, Denmark. Internet: "<http://www.winddata.com/>". Wind field time series from the following sites has been applied: Vindeby (Risø National Laboratories, Denmark) and Skiphelia (Norwegian University of Science and Technology, Norway).

Just give us credit when credit is needed